

2016 PALOUSE BASIN WATER SUMMIT

Wednesday, October 5, 4:30-8:00p.m. SEL Event Center, Pullman, WA

- 4:30 Welcome and Introductions
Rob Buchert
Master of Ceremonies
Stormwater Services Program Manager
City of Pullman
- 4:40 Water Collaboration on the Palouse
The Honorable Glenn Johnson, City of Pullman
The Honorable Bill Lambert, City of Moscow
- 4:50 Think Water Smithsonian Initiative
Dulce Kersting
Executive Director
Latah County Historical Society
- 5:00 Wisescape® Your Way to Water Efficient Landscaping on the Palouse
Panel Presentation
Paul Warnick
Arboretum Horticulturist
University of Idaho Arboretum and Botanical Garden
Maureen Taylor Regan
University of Idaho Associate AD/SWA, Retired
Nichole Baker
Environmental Services Coordinator
City of Moscow
Art Garro
Maintenance and Operations Superintendent
City of Pullman
- 5:30 PBAC Annual State of the Basin
Steve Robischon
Executive Manager
Palouse Basin Aquifer Committee
- 6:00 Palouse Basin Alternative Water Supply Study Update (20)
David Rice, P.E., Anchor QEA
Jay Decker, P.E., HDR
- 6:25 Palouse Basin Adjudication Update
Morgan Case
Northern Idaho Regional Manager
Idaho Department of Water Resources
- 6:30 An Interactive Dialogue About Water
Allyson Beall King
School of the Environment
Washington State University
- 7:00 Keynote: Blue Future
Maude Barlow, Author, National Chairperson of the Council of Canadians, founder of the Blue Planet Project
- 7:50 Closing Remarks & Drawings for Wisescape® Makeover and Low-Flow Toilet
Jon Kimberling and Paul Kimmell
- Blue Future Book Signing
Maude Barlow